KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Martin Suuberg, Commissioner
Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
One Winter Street, Boston, MA 02108
(617) 292-5856 | martin.suuberg@state.ma.us

Martin Suuberg was appointed on January 8, 2015 as the Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (MassDEP) by Governor Charles D. Baker and his Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs, Matthew A. Beaton.

With nearly 30 years of experience working in environmental and natural resource agencies at the state and federal level, Martin is a lawyer and manager who has effectively and efficiently administered the environmental laws that protect the quality of life for all Massachusetts' citizens.

Prior to his appointment as Commissioner, Martin served as Undersecretary for Environmental Affairs in the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs. At MassDEP, Martin served as Deputy Commissioner for Policy and Planning. He took over this position after 9 ½ years as the Regional Director for the Central Regional Office in Worcester, which serves more than 70 communities in Worcester County and nearby areas and is responsible for environmental permitting, inspection and enforcement activities.

Over his long career, Martin has also served as General Counsel to MassDEP and to the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs, as well as to the former Department of Environmental Management where he also served as Deputy Commissioner.

Before moving to Massachusetts, Martin was an Associate Solicitor and then Deputy Solicitor at the U.S. Department of the Interior in Washington, DC, where he worked on land management and natural resource issues.

Beth Card is the Deputy Commissioner for Policy and Planning at the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (MassDEP), a position she has held since March 2015. In this role she leads agency efforts pertaining to regulatory reform and managers priority initiatives related to air, waste, and water. Prior to her current post, in November 2011 she first joined the agency as the Assistant Commissioner for the Bureau of Water Resources (BWR). Among her priority projects, Beth has been coordinating the implementation of revised water management regulations following the Sustainable Water Management Initiative- -an effort that is geared towards balancing competing human needs for water and the long-term health of Massachusetts rivers and streams. Most recently, she has been a part of the MassDEP team working with the Cape Cod Commission and EPA Region 1 on the update to the Section 208 Area-Wide Management plan for Cape Cod. Prior to joining MassDEP, Beth was the Director of the Water Quality Division for the New England Interstate Water Pollution Control Commission (NEIWPCC). In 2011, she represented the Association of Clean Water Administrators (ACWA) and NEIWPCC when she provided testimony before the United States House of Representatives Subcommittee on Water Resources and Environment, on approaches to developing nutrient criteria. Beth has also served as the co-chair of ACWA's Legal Affairs Task Force since 2006. Early on in her career, Beth spent several years working for the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services in the wetlands and source water protection programs. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of New Hampshire and a Juris Doctorate from the Massachusetts School of Law.
