MassDEP Bureau of Water Resources Leadership

Douglas Fine, Assistant Commissioner, Bureau of Water Resources
Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
One Winter Street, Boston, MA 02108
(617) 292-5792 | Douglas.fine@state.ma.us

Douglas Fine is the Assistant Commissioner for Water Resources at the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (MassDEP). Mr. Fine oversees the agency's work on protecting critical inland and coastal water resources by controlling point and nonpoint sources of pollution; safeguarding public drinking water supplies; assessing surface water quality; and administering revolving loan programs that help the state's towns and cities improve their water infrastructure and grant programs to reduce non-point source pollution. Douglas is currently the Chair of the Executive Committee for New England Interstate Water Pollution Control Commission. Mr. Fine has served in various policy and operations positions at MassDEP since 1989. Prior to joining MassDEP, Mr. Fine worked at the Massachusetts Audubon Society, doing outreach and education. Mr. Fine graduated from Antioch College with a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Studies, and earned a Master of Public Administration from Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

Lealdon Langley, Division Director, Wetlands & Wastewater
Bureau of Water Resources
Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
One Winter Street, Boston, MA 02108
(617) 574-6882 | Lealdon.Langley@state.ma.us

Lealdon Langley is the Director of the Wetlands and Wastewater Program of the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection where he is responsible for the statewide implementation of the Wetlands Protection Act, Section 401 of the Clean Waters Act and the Wetlands Conservancy Mapping Program. Lealdon's duties were expanded in 2017 to also supervise MassDEP's Wastewater Programs including Title 5, NPDES (Surface Water Discharge Program), and the Groundwater Discharge Program.

Lealdon holds a B.A. in Biology from Hendrix College and a M.A from the Center for Energy and Environmental Studies at Boston University where he studied environmental science and public policy.

Steven McCurdy, Division Director, Municipal Services
Bureau of Water Resources
Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
One Winter Street, Boston, MA 02108
(617) 292-5779 | Steven.McCurdy@state.ma.us

Steve McCurdy is the Director of MassDEP's Division of Municipal Services, where he oversees the State Revolving Fund loan programs, plus several state and federal grant programs. A graduate of Merrimack College and Suffolk University's Sawyer School of Management, Steve has overseen billions of dollars of investments in local water infrastructure projects across the Commonwealth, during his tenure with DEP.

Mr. McCurdy is also active in town government, serving on the Warrant Committee and as an elected representative to Town Meeting. This service to the town of Milton has provided Steve with extensive experience and perspective on financial planning and budgeting issues on the municipal and state level.

Rebecca Weidman, Division Director, Watershed Management
Bureau of Water Resources
Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
One Winter Street, Boston, MA 02108
(617) 654-6612 | Rebecca.Weidman@state.ma.us

Rebecca Weidman joined the Massachusetts' Department of Environmental Protection's (MassDEP) Bureau of Water Resources in 2013. She is the Director of the Division of Watershed Management; in this capacity, she oversees MassDEP's drinking water, monitoring and assessment, and water management act programs. Prior to joining MassDEP, Rebecca worked in both the private and non-profit sectors, with a focus on water resources and drinking water issues. Rebecca has a B.A. in Biology from Carleton College and a Master's of Environmental Management from Yale's School of Forestry and Environmental Studies.
