Pete Long, Strategic Accounts Manager
Heritage Environmental Services, LLC
1500 Lock Lane, Chittenango, NY 13037
339-236-4645 | plong@heritage-enviro.com

Pete Long is a Strategic Accounts Manager at Heritage, an Indianapolis-based environmental services provider specializing in the treatment or destruction of hazardous wastes with customers and facilities throughout North America. Pete is responsible for managing accounts that focus on PCB Remediation Waste, RCRA hazardous soil and PFAS soil transportation and disposal to the Heritage owned and operated landfill and incinerator.

Pete's 24-year career in the environmental industry has been focused on Industrial Service, Remediation and the associated Transportation and Disposal of waste generated by these activities. Much of Pete's work has come from his connections in the engineering market. Pete has been an ally of many environmental engineering firms that range from large multinational corporations to small government set asides. Pete's knowledge comes from his diverse background in the field service and waste brokerage industry. Pete started in the industry as a Field Supervisor for North Country Environmental in Milford, MA from 1999-2004. EQ, The Environmental Quality Company offered Pete a position as the EQ Northeast Field Service Manager in 2004. Pete then went on to have 14 years of success at both EQ and ultimately US Ecology in both operations and sales from 2004-2018.

Before entering the environmental field, Pete served as a college football coach at various NCAA institutions. Pete was the Interim Head Coach of the United States Coast Guard Academy in 1998.

Pete is a graduate from The University of Rhode Island in 1994.

Katherine Jacintho, Project Manager
Charter Contracting Company, LLC
500 Harrison Ave Suite 4r Boston, MA, 02118
617-608-7317 | kjacintho@charter.us

Katherine has over 15 years of experience in the environmental remediation, marine construction, and construction management industries. At Charter, she has successfully managed complex, large-scale environmental restoration, dredging and land reclamation projects, excelling in client relations and her depth of understanding of highly technical aspects of each job.

Katherine is currently managing the $36.5m Phase II Muddy River Flood Risk Management project, which includes dredging and environmental improvements in highly visible and highly trafficked areas, from Leverett Pond in Brookline throughout the Muddy River in the Riverway and Back Bay Fens.

At Charter, Katherine is involved in the Safety Steering Committee, and is also a member of the Western Dredging Association (WEDA) and the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC). Katherine has served as a mentor and tutor, and participated in fund raising events to raise scholarship money for women pursuing careers in the industry. In recognition of her leadership and achievements, Katherine was the recipient of the 2018 Environmental Business Council's Ascending Professional Award.
